GLOWING TRIBUTE PAID CONFEDERATES

Rep. Riley J. Wilson Delivers Oration at Memorial Exercises

IMPRESSIVE AFFAIR

Fifteen Confederate Veterans In Line—Large Throng Attends—Salute Fired by Military.

"There are many shrines in this state where liberty and patriotism may be learned, but there is no altar when we can teach the children better than to send them to the face of a confederate monument declared Representative Riley J. Wilson, of Louisiana, in delivering the annual memorial address yesterday afternoon at the confederate monument before membrs of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, and others.

He said: "The confederate veterans left us the richest heritage and declared the confederate soldier is honored and respected by all and that no son or daughter of the confederacy has to defend the cause for which the confederate fought. The confeedrate soldier, he asserted, was as true to the cause as his opponent The great war said the speaker was fought over principals of free government as they understood them. A glowing tribute to the record of the confederate soldier and the cause for which he fought was paid by the speaker, who among other things said: "We will not forget the record of the confederate soldier. We can honor ourselves in no better way than in perpetuating their memory."

At the conclusion of the war the speaker said the confederate veterans and the women of the confederacy went back to their homes which they found desolate and all of their money gone. With courage and detremination, he said, they went to work and built up one of the proudest civilization there exists today.

Today, said the speaker, there is in this country socialism and anarchy preached and these doctrines strike at the very foundation of our government.

Rev. Dr. E. V. Rorester, pastor of the M. E. Church South, presided and introduced the speaker at the request of Commander John R. Zimmerman. A short tribute to the chivalry of the confederate soldier was paid by the speaker and he added there is no state which gave of her blood in the cause than did Louisiana, and he then introduced Representative Wilson.

The exercises were opened with invocation by Rev. Dr. W. J. Morton, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, after which a quartet composed of Mrs. Harrie White, Mrs. Sherman B. Fowler, Kenneth W. Ogden and Arthur H. Bryant sang "O Mother Dear, Jerusalem." Their concluding song at the monument was Kipling's "Reecssional." Benediction by Rev. Dr. S A. Wallis rector of Braddock Episcopal Chapel brought the exercis.. at the monument to a close.

Occupying seats on the south side of the monument were members of R. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans and members of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

The exercises were attended by a larger crowd than in former years and were very impressive. The speakes and singers occupied places on a big army truck which was appropriately decorated with flags and bunting and palms were in the back ground.

At the conclusion of the exercises the veterans headed by the Citizens' Band, the Alexandria Light Infantry, in command of Capt. C. M. Shepperson, and a number of Boy Pioneers, marched to Christ Church cemetery where the mound, beneath which rests the remains of a number of Confederate soldiers, was decorated. The quartet sang, "Lead Kindy Light," after which the Light Infantry fired a salute and the sounding of taps by a bugler brought the exercises to a close.

Only about fifteen veterans took part in the procession yesterday. During the past few years death has laid a heavy hand on the membership of this camp.

Their old battle flag and the flag of the state of Virginia was carried by the veterans as they marched in solemn procession to the cemetery where the exercises were concluded

The monument at Washington and Prince streets early in the day was decorated by the Daughters of the Confederacy for the affair and was very attractive.

Graves of confederate veterans in the various cemeteries also were decorated during the day by committees from the Daughters of the Confederacy.

The committee in charge of the confederate memorial day exercises feels that much of the success of the occasion was due to the kindness and generosity of friend of the cause and desires to express its appreciation of the same to the commandant of Camp Humphreys for the army truck sent for the afternoon and to his courteous soldiers who assisted so cheerfully to Mr. David G. Grillportizer, for a liberal contribution of red and white carnations and calla lilies; to Mr. G. G. Wolt, for the gift of a beautiful wreath, cut flowers and the loan of the palms; to Mr. Edgar Warfield, Sr., for his untiring efforts and financial aid; to the Citizens' Band, the Alexandria Light Infantry, the Pioneer Troops and to all who assisted so graciously in honoring appropriately the immortal confederate dead.

COUNCIL PASSES APPROPRIATION BILL

Budget For Coming Fiscal Year is $259,000, Recepits $266,000

PROMISE NEW SCHOOL

Move to Curtail Health Department is Defeated by Vote of 10 to 4—Will Improve Many Sidewalks.

Common council la. night passed the annual appropriation bill carrying with it $259,000 for the operating expenses of the city government for the fiscal year from June 1, 1921, to May 31, 1922. The estimated receipts for the coming year are $266,000, according to E. F. Ticer, chairman of the finance committee of the city council, who read to council a very comprehensive report on the financial affairs of the city. Receipts from all taxes are based on a total of $9,540,009. Receipts estimated by the finance committee include $207,700 from taxes on real estate and the remainder from other sources. It was explained by Mr. Ticer that the finance committee has not overlooked the fact that they will have to have at least $50,000 to start the erection of a new school building in the near future and this money he said would come out of the proposed bond issue of $300,000, and the committee in its appropriations had set apart $35,000 for street work and he added that arrangements would be made to take care of the financial plans for the new school building.

A review of the expenses last year was also given in the report submitted by Mr. Ticer.

When the ordinance providing for a change in the present health department came up for consideration President Burke took the floor and Vice President Wattles presided. Mr. Burke addressed council advocating no change in the personnel of this department, and he among other things said he thought the money spent for the health of the city was well spent and that this department was doing excellent work. He said that any change that would tend to lessen its efficiency he thought would be a mistake. Mr. Burke also quoted figures of other Virginia cities which spent a far greater amount than Alexandria for health, and he read the record of Dr. L. E Foulks, city health officer, and praised the able manner in which he has handled the situation here. Mr. Burke expressed hope that the report of the committee which favored the ordinance would not go through. Others who spoke in favor of not making any change in this department were Councilmen Ruben, Downham, Sullivan and Baggett.

It developed during the progress of the debate that the committee proposed to eliminate the services of the bacteriologist and make the health officer do this work. The report of the committee then was voted on and was defeated by a vote of 10 to 4. This, therefore, means there will be no reduction in the health department. Those who voted for the report of the committee were McCaffrey, Ticer, Wattles and Fletcher.

Firebugs At Work

Two Attempts Made To Destroy Bottling Plant of E. O. Rammel Early Today

Two efforts were made early this morning by firebugs to destroy the two story frame bottling house occupied by Ernest Ott Rammel, 408 Princess street, and owned by H. T. Beach and Brother.

The first alarm was turned in at 12:30 o'clock this morning and the building was considerably damaged. An investigation disclosed that the firebugs had left in the place a quart bottle partially filled with kerosene and the odor of oil was detected by the firemen when they entered the building. Before they subdued the flames, the roof and sidewalls were damaged to the exttent of about $400.

The second alarm came in at 3:30 o'clock and the firebugs on this occasion had placed old wall paper in the building and started a blaze. This was quickly extinguished. Mr. Rammel's loss will be several hundred dollars. The police are investigating the ense. Mr. Beach's loss is covered by insurance.

Accept Challenge

Triple A'S, However, Want Series of Games With Dreadnaughts On Sundays

Your sporting spirit is unexcelled. No worthier cause could be picked for the receipts of the games, and the Triple A are with you heart and soul, but as long as the Salvation Army are to reap the harvest of the contest, let's make it a good one.

It appears that the people are led to believe that we are in need of money, now Dreadnaughts why not loosen up on your money making Sunday dates and not insult the Salvation Army by offering such a great cause Saturday receipts when ninety per cent of the fans are working and will not be able to patronize the games on Saturday. We will never agree on any Saturday games as the Triple A team will not take the field to play for the benefit of an organiaztion who sent out their members to prove life savers for the boys in the trenches overseas, from where many of the Salvation Army women never returned. The most that you can do for these great people is the very least when you consider it full payment.

Start the series Sunday, June 12, and play each Sunday thereafter until the three games are completed, if three be necessary. We note that you are looking for Sunday games, through the Washington papers. We can rearrange so as to suit your acceptance of our challenge. "Mr. D's are you sports? If you are, come out on the field and show yourself and do not stand around the corners telling the public what you can do when you have not shown. The time will soon be here for either team to be returned winners, so let the news papers rest.

BIG PARADE ON IN FREDERICKSBURG

City Thronged With Visitors to Participate in Festivities

MANY FLOATS IN LINE

Gov. Davis and Staff View Passing Pageant—Affair Ends Tonight With Firework Display

Fredericksburg, Va., May 25.—Fredericksburg today is celebrating its 250th anniversary. The city is thronged with visitors and a big parade which started at 2 o'clock this afternoon was a feature of the festivities incident to the celebration. There are visitors from Washington, Alexandria, Richmond, Baltimore and from practically every city in the state and Governor Davis and staff and many other distinguished guests both national and state officials. Practically all business was suspended at noon.

Gov. Davis reviewed the big parade. Tonight there will be a big display of fireworks on Marye's Heights.

All of the floats in the line of procession were very attractive and artistic depicting historical stages from 1607 to 1920 inclusive.

Among the speakers today were Governor Davis, and Charles Beatty Alexander and Herbert L. Bridgman the last named two of New York.

Rappahannock Tribe of Indians were in line led by regular chiefs, decendants of the thirty tribes ruled by King Pocohontas.

An informal reception last night was tendered the governor and his party.

Fredericksburg has held an important place in Colonial Revolutionary and Civil War history.

Many illustrious men were born in or near the town. Among them were seven Presidents of the United States and three of the great military leaders of the world, including George Washington, James Monroe, James Madison and General Robert E. Lee.

The only home of John Paul Jones in America is in the town, and from here he was commissioned a lieutenant in the United States Navy; also was the home of Mathew Fontaine Maury, the Pathfinder of the Seas.

More than half the Presidents of the United States have visited here. During the War Between the States President Lincoln made an impressive and conciliatory address in the town.

Within fifteen miles of the town more men were engaged and fell in battle than in any like territory in America. These battles include the first and second Fredericksburg Salem Church, Chancellorsville, Bloody Angle, Spotsylvania Courthouse and the Wilderness.

Soldier, Speeding by Auto to Sweetheart, Arrested; Kind Hearted Judge Frees Him

Scranton, Pa., May 25.—Barring interference by other rural constables, Anthony Godale ought to be married by some time tomorrow.

Godale lives in Cleveland, and was making forty miles an hour through here today in his automobile. Arrested for speeding, he told the court he was hurrying to Ellis Island to meet his sweetheart, Miss Anna Pickering, of Liverpool. He informed the court that he was anxious to reach New York so that the wedding would not be delayed. He met Miss Pickering when he was overseas with the air forces.

He showed Judge Meyers letters to prove that Miss Pickering is at Ellis Island waiting for her soldier boy lover.

"I believe you," said the judge "and I will make you a wedding present of a dismissal of the charge You may sped through Scranton to your way to your sweetheart."

Godale rushed from the courtroom He hopped into his car and "gave it the gas." He was making 40 miles an hour at the edge of town.

"Poppy Day" Saturday

Legion Women To Sell Poppies For Disabled Soldiers

Saturday, May 28, will be observed as "Poppy Day" in this city when the Woman's Auxiliary to the American Legion will sell small red silk poppies on the streets for the benefit of the soldier relief fund. Every man, woman and child in the city is urged to provide themselves with a poppy on Saturday, and wear it Monday, May 30, Memorial Day.

The national association of the Legion has selected May 30 as the memorial day for the World War and the poppy, "In remembrance of Flanders Field" is the national flower on that day. Each post and auxiliary received requests to observe the day in some manner and the suggestion was made that it be a "tag" day for the benefit of disabled and needy ex-service men and their dependants. The local auxiliary selected the preceding Saturday as being the most advantageous from a monetary standpoint, as many people are out of the city on a holiday.

"Wear a Poppy in remembrance of Flanders Field."

Portrait Unveiling

Affair at Fairfax Courthouse Monday In Memory of George Johnston

On May 30th, at 4 p. m., there will be unveiled in the Court Room at Fairfax, Virginia, a life sized bust portrait of George Johnston, of Fairfax County, who served in the Virginia House of Burgesses 1758-1765. He it was who so boldly seconded the resolutions offered by Patrick Henry in opposition to the Stamp Act in May 1765, and in a speech of sound logic and solid reasoning moved their adoption.

Mr. Wirt in his "Life of Patrick Henry," says of Mr. Johnston he is one of those many friends of liberty who are sliding fast from the recollection of their country, and who deserve to be rescued from oblivion by a more particular notice than I am able to bestow.

It is with this purpose in view that the descendants of Johnston have presented his portrait to the county he so long and ably served at a time indeed which tried men's souls.

The presentation address will be made by Mr. Francis E. Johnston of Washington, D. C., a great great grandson and will be responded to in a speech of acceptance on behalf of the county, by the Honorable R. Walton Moore, Representative in Congress from the 8th District of Va., also a distinguished son of Fairfax.

The exercises which will mark the one hundred and fifty sixth anniversary of one of the most stirring events of colonial history will be opened to all.

"FORWARD" SLOGAN OF ST. GEORGE TUCKER

Given Big Ovation at Opera House Last Night

OPPOSES MORE TAXES

Favors Good Roads, Schools, Better Pay For Firemen And Policemen

Harry St. George Tucker, candidate for governor of Virginia, last night addressed a largely attended mass meeting in the opera house in the interest of his candidacy for the governership and he was given a big ovation many times during the course of his address.

Among other things the speaker said he objected to the usurpation by the federal government of the powers of the state of Virginia. His slogan, "Back to the Constitution," he said applied to the federal government. His slogan in the affairs of the State, he said, is, "Forward." He declared there is a well definied limitation to the granting by the state of its powers to the federal government, an dthat after these powers have been taken from the state by the federal government the equilibrium is disturbed and that if the powers are continued to be granted nothing will be left for the several states, and that the wants of some states would not in any sense suit those of other States.

Mr. Tucker expressed himself in favor of lower taxes, prison reform, good roads, increased pension for the Confederate veterans, better living conditions, protection for workingmen, childhood, health and good schools and better pay for firemen and policemen.

Mr. Tucker while in favor of good roads expressed himself as opposed at this time to the proposed $50,000 000 bond issue by the state, stating that it could only be used in seven years or approximately $7,000,000 a year, that the state had $8,000,000 a year available at this time for good roads, and that this was no time to go in for a bond issue covering future years, when there is enough at hand at this time for the work that can possibly be done for a year, and at the end of that time there would be available revenue from other sources such as automobile licenses, as the revenue of Virginia has in the past eight years increased from $2,500,000 to $18,500,000.

He laid great stress on his proposition to high taxation and promised if elected no to recommend an increase in taxation.

The meeting was presided over by Commonwealth's Attorney Howard W. Smith who after a few brief remarks introduced Mayor James M. Duncan who in turn introduced Mr. Tucker. Among those attending the meeting were many women.

Interesting Occasion

Fifty Members of B. Y. P. U., Attend Federation Meeting

Last night a party of fifty members of the Baptist Young People's Union of the First Baptist Church went by specially chartered car to Washington, to attend a meeting of the Federation of Baptist Young People from Baltimore and Washington. Dr. Charles H. Pinchbeck, pastor of the Seventh Baptist Church of Baltimore, made a most telling address on a three-fold witness of the Christian. He declared that the "Acts of the Apostles" recognized the witnessing by word, by act and by giving money to the Kingdom. A number of pastors were present from Maryland and Virginia, among them Dr. E B. Jackson, of this city. Clinton Brown, president of the local union, conducted the party. A repast was furnished to the Baltimore delegation.

A Show Down. The resolution introduced in the House of Representatives yesterday by Representative Flood of this state with reference to the recent speech of the American Ambassador to Great Britain, if passed, would make somebody tremendously uncomfortable Mr. Flood wants Congress to ask the State Department whether or not Colonel Harvey was speaking under instructions when with mighty ex-cathedra voice the other day he undertook to pledge the Administration and the American people not only to total abstinence from the League of Nations but to interpret the purpose for which this country entered the World War as wholly and purely selfish.

The concensus of opinion generally has been that our Ambassador slightly overstepped his bounds. President Harding was alone the day after the speech in describing it as a "happy expression" of American policy.

This much should be said. If Colonel Harvey's description of America's reason for fighting the World War, spending twenty-four billions of dollars and losing over a hundred thousand lives, is a "happy expression," then President Harding's later description of the same thing at Hoboken over the bodies of more than 5,000 American dead, when he defined the World War as a war against autocracy and for civilization, was a most "unhappy expression," because the two things, the Harvey description and the Harding description, are as far apart as the poles. Which is right? Did America go into the World War from altruistic motives or from base and selfish ones? There is no better time than the present for a show-down and that is what the Flood resolution if adopted would bring about. Watch the Republicans run from it.

A Useless Chase. While rival factions in the pursuit of a solution to the tax revision problem spring forward hecticly to the Congressional grindstone, seeking to grind their respective and collective axes, contemplated action on the country's financial policy brings to mind the man who rushes to a distant drug store when the remedy for his ailment sets on a shelf in his own medicine cabinet

All mouths cry for a repeal of the excess profits tax. Wide diversities, wild declarations and weird days ensue while the majority concerned set out in verbal chase after a will-o'-the-wish substitute for the levy now in force. Few have stopped to consider that a substitute is in effect unnecessary.

Due to a conspiracy of various elements, a heavy proportion of the war taxes trusted to the Income Tax Division of the Bureau of Internal Revenue for collection has not yet been brought into the coffers of the Treasury. Three or four years have elapsed since these taxes were due.

The percentage of cases handed down from these years is astounding. Sixty per cent of those originatin in 1918 have not yet been touched; ninety per cent originating in the following year remain unacted upon. Enough money is involved in these vast sums of uncollected taxes to tide over the present financial situation of the nation without the imposition of substitute taxation.

The juggling of taxation schemes while money sufficient to bulge the nation's purse rests uncollected cannot but present itself to even the most impractical mind as a unique procedure.

The Centennial. It is a noble and inspiring sentiment which lies behind such celebrations as that soon to take place at Charlottesville to mark the centennial of the great University of Virginia. The bringing together of all the sons of the University to do honor to a hundred years of splendid service in the world, to commemorate all those who have gone before and to take new heart for the battle of to-day and tomorrow, is an undertaking well worth the while.

It needs no saying that the University of lovely colonnades under the shadow of Monticello will in those first days of June be the Mecca for hundreds of Alma Mater's sons who have wandered far from the old institution and the old state. Many distinguished educators and friends of Virginia will be there to praise the splendid history of the University. The long line of the patriots, statesmen, artists and warriors sent from the Old Rotunda will be extolled as well they should. An elaborate series of exercises will entertain visitors, alumni and students. There will be a great pilgrimage to the home and tomb of the founder of the University and the Father of Democracy, Thomas Jefferson. But for each returning son of the University there will be that peculiar thing above all else, his own particular memories of his own bright days of youth spent in that "rose-tinted valley surrounded by hills lying deep in a land that is blest."

"As in the densest cities so in the own home town, the U. S. tire user gets fresh, live tires of current production."

THE U. S. CHAIN TREAD
One of the few tires of which it may be said that they deliver economy year in and year out and tire after tire.

The U. S. Chain Tread gives sufficient traction on all ordinary road surfaces. It is probably the handsomest, and by all odds the most popular, of the whole U. S. Fabric Tire line.

"In every section, however remote, you find a dealer in fresh, live U. S. Tires."

Economy rides on U.S. Tires—

IF you could get together all the car owners you know, you'd probably find that their tire experiences had been much the same.

Most of them have taken their fling at "job lots," "discontinued lines" and "surplus stocks." Soon or late, nearly all settled back on quality first as the one sound assurance of tire value.

* * *

As soon as a man forgets the cut-price tag, and comes to the dealer who concentrates on a full, completely sized stock of U. S. Tires—he learns what it means to get fresh, live tires —not once in a while but every time.

Not merely in the big cities, but in his own home town.

Not merely for the heavy car, but for the medium and light-weight car—a full selection of size, tread and type.

Your U. S. Tire dealer can give you this service because of the service he gets from his neighboring U. S. Factory Branch. There are 92 of these Branches. Each gets its share of U. S. Tires, so that the dealer is always supplied with fresh, live stock.

U. S. Tires sell as fast as they are made.

There is no over production. No surplus piled up waiting for a "market."

Wherever you buy a U. S. Tire—you buy a tire of current production, as full of life and value as the day it left the makers.

ON WAY TO MARRY, IS CRUSHED TO DEATH

Pittsburgh, May 25.—Bernard Thaw Evans, a former well known Pittsburgher, was instantly killed last night when his automobile was wrecked near Lancaster, Pa., while en route to this city, where he had planned to be married the first of June. Evans' home was in Riverside Drive, New York City.

According to Mrs. Marion Warshaw of Uniontown, Evans, with Attorney R. C. Brooks, who was seriously injured in the mishap, left New York for this city a few days ago on Evans' marriage to Miss Beatrice A. Montgomery, a former Pittsburgh girl, and now of Uniontown. The accident occurred just after the two men left Lancaster.

According to Mrs. Warshaw the machine got beyond Evans' control and rolled down an embankment, killing Evans instantly and seriously injuring Brooks, who was rushed to a hospital.

Evans, who was 29 years old, was a graduate of the 1919 class of Harvard and had been employed by the government since his graduation. He recently returned from a trip abroad where he had spent several weeks in the interest of government oil property.

Evans was born in Pittsburg and had lived with his mother in Negley avenue until May 1, when he moved to New York City. He was well known in college circles.

ONE BALLOON DOWN NEAR STUART, VA.

Danville, Va., May 25.—Reports received over the Danville and Western railway telegraph wires yesterday evening confired the safe landing at 8 o'clock this morning of the "City of Birmingham," one of the nine balloons which left Birmingham Saturday in an elimination contest. The landing was made 10 miles west of Stuart, near Buffalo ridge.

The immense gas bag was seen over a wide area and was to many the first view of such aircraft. Hundreds visited the scene during the day. Details could not be obtained as to the flight, the telegraph wire being unavailable after 6:30 o'clock. The balloon's flight was approximately 2,800 miles. Part of the crew is expected here tomorrow.

New York, May 25.—Three of the balloons which set out from Birmingham, Ala., Saturay in the national race still are in the air, according to reports received here by the Aero Club of America. Six have been forced out, it was announced.

Those who reported to the club were: Roy W. Donaldson, piloting the "City of Birmingham," forced down 10 miles southeast of Nashville, Tenn.; Lieut. Col. F. P. Lahm, piloting army balloon No. 1, forced down near Columbia, Tenn., and Ralph Upson, who has the largest mileage yet reported, and who was forced to land this eevning.

Nashville, Tenn., May 24.—B. Von Hoffman and Hugo Mueller, on board the "Riverview Club of St. Louis" in the national balloon race, reached here today after being forced to land near Carthage, Tenn., yesterday.

10 FIREMEN JUMP TO SAFETY AS WALLS FALL

Philadelphia, Pa., May 25.—Nearly 20 firemen from two companies jumped to safety when three walls fell during a fire at the residence of Mrs. Bertha Kenna, 4115 Market street, last night. None was hurt, but the damage to the three-story building is estimated at $3,000.

Fire was discovered on the third floor, in the back. An alarm was turned in and when the firemen arrived the entire floor was in flames The blaze was under control.

As they were preparing to leave, after having ripped off part of the roof, a rafter fell in. The firemen, sensing danger, jumped across areaways to nearby roofs a moment before the rear wall and parts of the two side walls fell to the ground.

Church Plans Skyscraper Cathedral in Chicago Loop

Chicago, May 25.—As a monument to the centenary of their denomination's mission work, the Methodist Church will erect in the heart of the downtown business section a $3,500,000 cathedral like no other in the world.

It will be a skyscraper, 21 stories high, with offices occupying the space not given to a huge auditorium on the ground floor and church head quarters aboe. Rising from the roof of the 260-foot building will be a spire 140 feet high.

Great chimes in the spire, large enough to dominate the roar of loop traffic, will summon worshippers to the cathedral.

The cathedral will be pure French Gothic in style and in general structure, combining the grate of medieval churches with the utility of the modern office buliding.
